

Sundays on State Street Concert Series

Presented by

STATE STREET ACADEMY of MUSIC

110 State Street · Harrisburg, PA 17101

717.236.1366

www.ssamusic.org

November 15, 2009 4pm

Richard Roberson, piano; Elizabeth Kuefler, viola

Come join State Street Academy of Music for the opening concert of our 2009-2010 concert series. Richard Roberson will perform an evening of solo piano classics including works of Haydn and Chopin. Roberson is a founding board member of State Street Academy of Music and Dean of the School of the Arts at Messiah College. With this concert we are also excited to introduce Elizabeth Kuefler, our new Artistic Director, who will join Richard to perform Schubert's "Arpeggione" Sonata for viola and piano.

December 6, 2009 4pm

Messiah College Choir Christmas Concert

In its 6th year, the annual Messiah College Choir Christmas Concert is a treasured event at State Street Academy of Music. Join us for an evening of holiday classics, and be inspired by the voices of the talented men and women from the Messiah College Choir as they take advantage of the exceptional acoustics of St. Lawrence Chapel. Make sure to arrive early for this very popular event.

February 28, 2010 4pm

"East Meets West," James Lyon, violin; Timothy Shafer, piano

James Lyon and Timothy Shafer will perform a program mixing works from the traditional sonata repertoire with colorful works from Japan and China. Lyon and Schafer are professors of music at Penn State University. As "Duo Concertant" they have performed nationwide in venues including Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall. Their program will include Mozart's Sonata in B-flat, K. 454, Somei Satoh's "Birds in Warped Time," "The Butterfly Lovers" by Chen Gang and Ho-Zhan-hao, and Beethoven's "Kreutzer" Sonata.

March 7, 2010 4pm

State Street Academy of Music Faculty Recital

The faculty of State Street Academy of Music are talented performers and music educators who provide the highest quality instruction to our students. SSA faculty have degrees from Temple University, The Juilliard School, The Hartt School of Music, Stony Brook University and many other exceptional institutions. Our faculty will present an evening of solo and ensemble playing, including works by Bach, Beethoven, Rachmaninoff, and much more.

April 25, 2010 4pm

Jonathan Kadar-Kallen, piano

Jonathan Kadar-Kallen will present an evening of solo piano music featuring works by Bach, Prokofiev and Liszt. Kadar-Kallen is active as a performer throughout Central Pennsylvania. He serves as the organist and choir director for the Mater Dei Latin Mass at St. Lawrence Chapel. Equally interested in music performance and composition, Kadar-Kallen is currently a sophomore at Messiah College, where he is pursuing a BM in piano performance and composition.

These events are open to the public with a requested $10 donation per person.

All donations benefit the Academy. Concerts take place at State Street Academy of Music, located at St. Lawrence Chapel, 110 State Street in downtown Harrisburg.

State Street Academy of Music is a community-based, grassroots non-profit organization, with a culturally diverse student body. At present, 45 percent of the students receive partial scholarships. SSA provides an intensive music education program, which introduces children and teens to the wonders and joys of music, helps them develop their talent, and opens doors for them to new opportunities in education and life. SSA provides instruction in a full range of musical activities, including instrument and vocal lessons, performing ensembles, music theory, and music history.

110 State Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101

